130	Commissioner Dutremble seconded the motion.
137	DISCUSSION: Commissioner Ring asked if that was the starting pay for
139	corrections? H.R. Director Corliss replied, yes. Commissioner Clark asked when
140	these new hires would attend the Correction's academy? H.R. Director Corliss
141	replied, the end of September. Vote 5-0.
142	replied, the end of September. Vote 5 0.
143	d. Review and seek Commissioner approval of RFQ for construction management
144	services for the Strategic Planning and Readiness Center and for the Treatment
145	and Recovery Center-
146	County Manager Zinser informs all that this begins the next phase of bringing
147	on the construction management team. The RFQ will be out there for a month
148	for vote at our October 19 th meeting.

149	Commissioner Ring asked what about the Town of Alfred? When do we go to
150	them? County Manager Zinser replied, once we get our pricing. He added that
151	we should have engineering costs next week. Commissioner Sicard asked if the
151	architects are giving the County Manager any idea on the costs? County
153	Manager Zinser replied, no, but that his understanding is a lot of those
154	contractors are still kind of booked up.
155	At some point, we will need to talk about the ARPA money overall, stated the
156	County Manager. Once those numbers come in, we will have to go back and
157	see where we are.
158	Commissioner Clark motioned to approve the request for quotes for the
159	construction management services. Commissioner Andrews seconded the
160	motion. Vote 5-0.
161	e. Review of proposals for archival services and award contract-
162	County Manager Zinser explained that he and Register of Deeds Nancy
163	Hammond had a meeting for this request and two individuals came in and each
164	gave a proposal. Our recommendation would be to go with Paige Lilly
165	Archival.
166	Commissioner Sicard asked Register of Deeds Hammond if this was her your
167	recommendation as well? She replied that yes, it was as we need someone that
168	can help us navigate what we have.
169	Commissioner Clark stated that he agreed and that her proposal brings about 40
170	years of experience to this project.
171
172	Commissioner Clark motioned to approve the hiring of Paige Archival. He
173	added that the Commissioners approve not more than $10,000. Commissioner
174	Dutremble seconded the motion.
175	Vote 5-0.
175
	f. Seek Commissioner approval of forfeiture assets from Sheriff's Office-County
177	Manager Zinser informed the Commissioners that this information was in the
178	Commissioners' packet of information.
179	Discussion: Commissioner Ring asked what will we do with these several
180	weapons? Sheriff King replied that he did not know if they are usable but that a
181	firearms expert will look at them. We do not sell them, he explained.
182	Commissioner Clark asked if they are destroyed if they cannot be used. Sheriff
183	King replied, yes.
184	Commissioner Clark motioned to approve the forfeiture. Commissioner
185	Andrews seconded the motion. Vote 5-0.
186	g. Discussion of holding Spirit of America Awards ceremony
187	(suggested date of November 2, 2022 prior to Commissioners' meeting)-
188	County Manager Zinser stated that the ceremony could be in person or virtual.
189	The Commissioners agree to hold the ceremony at 3:00 p.m. on November 2,
190
	2022, prior to their regular meeting at 4:30 p.m.
191	h. Authorization to deposit settlement funds into Layman Way account-
192	County Manager explained that these funds are from the opioid settlement. He
193	stated that York County is set to receive the first payment sometime this month
194	of $95,000. The funds have to be used for addictive purposes. Ultimately,
195	continued the County Manager, as we move forward with programming, we
196	would use it as revenues. Once a year for 19 years we will receive this money.
197	Commissioner Clark motioned to approve placing the opioid payments into the
198
	Layman Way account. Commissioner Dutremble seconded the motion. Vote 5-
199	Layman Way account. Commissioner Dutremble seconded the motion. Vote 5- 0.

202	8 OLD BUSINESS
203	Commissioner Ring asked the County Manager if his statement that we are going
204	to file a PPC at the last meeting something we discussed? She added that she did
205	not recall this and it concerned her.
206	County Manager Zinser stated that this matter can be discussed in executive
207	session under personnel.
208
209	Commissioner Ring asked in reference to the sign on bonuses, is there any type of
210	schedule of what we will be doing with them or are you just picking a number?
	schedule of what we will be doing with them of are you just picking a number?
211
212	H.R. Director Corliss replied that we had decided before for corrections and police
213	based on what was being offered in the area. This is the same with administrative.
214	Commissioner Ring asked if there is a line item for bonuses? H.R. Director Corliss
214	responded that the bonuses come out of salary.
	responded that the bolluses come out of safary.
216
217	Commissioner Clark questioned how much time does the new employee have to
218	complete to receive the (bonus) pay out. H.R. Director Corliss replied that for an
219	MSEA employee it is the probationary period of six months. For Corrections
220	Officers and law enforcement, they receive $\frac{1}{2}$ after completion of the academy and
221	the other after one year (completion of their probationary period).
